

Visa Info

All professional players and their support personnel (i.e. players, coaches, physios, etc.) should apply for Temporary Activity visa (subclass 408).

Family members attending the event in a non-working capacity may apply for a tourist visa (i.e. ETA (subclass 601), eVisitor (subclass 651) or Visitor visa (Subclass 600) in the tourist stream).

If you currently hold a valid visa to enter Australia, please check with your nearest Australian embassy for your visa entitlements.

VISA REQUIREMENTS

- The visa can be granted with single or multiple entry to Australia, therefore clearly indicate your travel dates to and from Australia during your stay on your application
- You can only stay in Australia for the period granted (up to three months)
- All professional players and support personnel must pay a fee of AUD$280
- All international players and support personnel require a letter of invitation
- Please contact playerservices@tennis.com.au to request a letter of invitation

PLEASE NOTE

- Processing time of the 408 visa can take up to 1 month
- Ensure you leave adequate time prior to your projected travel dates
- Visa processing offices will be closed over the Christmas and New Year holidays
- People found to be working in breach of their visa conditions may have their visa cancelled

Family members are recommended to apply for a tourist visa (i.e. ETA (subclass 601), eVisitor (subclass 651) or Visitor visa (Subclass 600) in the tourist stream).

- Support personnel cannot be considered as family members and are required to apply for a visa in their own right

You cannot participate in the 2018 Australian Open Series until you have been granted an appropriate visa with work rights
